Numb. 440.

THE Pennſylvania GAZETTE.

Containing the freſheſt Advices Foreign and Domeſtick.

From May 12. to May 19. 1737.

LONDON, January 4.

ON Saturday laſt the Ode for the New Year, compos'd by Colley Cibber, Eſq; Poet Laureat, and ſet to Muſick by Dr. Green was ſung before her Majeſty and the reſt of the Royal Family at St. James's; the Vocal Parts by Mr. Gates, Mr. Row, Mr. Abbot, Mr. Beard, Mr. Lloyd and the Boys of the Royal Chapel; and the Inſtrumental by his Majeſty's Band of Muſick.

AIR.

GRateful Britons! grace the Day,
Give to Godlike GEORGE his Due:
This alone ſhall ſwell the Lay;
GEORGE is bleſt, in bleſſing you.
May Years to Years the Sound repeat,
And ſing the Mutual Bliſs compleat.

CHORUS.

May Years to Years the Sound repeat,
And ſing the Mutual Bliſs compleat.

RECITATIVO.

While Greatneſs knows no vain Deſire,
HE only asks, what you require:
And while HIS Crown your Freedom ſhields,
Your Freedom Power to guard it yields.

AIR.

What Glory charms
Like ſuch a Sway!
Protection warms,
And we obey.
From Hand to Hand
The Joy is toſs'd,
While dread Command
In Love is loſt.

RECITATIVO.

Lords of yourſelves, you form the Law,
That gives the Diſcontented Awe;
'Twixt Prince and People, no Debate
But Zeal to make each other Great.

AIR.

Thus poſſeſſing
Ev'ry Bleſſing,
Could Enjoyment pall Deſire;
New Obedience,
True Allegiance,
Gracious GEORGE would ſtill inſpire.
So the Fountain,
From the Mountain,
Laves the verdant Vale below;
While improving,
And removing,
Circling Harveſts fall and grow.

CHORUS.

Raiſe then, to Caeſar, raiſe the Song;
Let Vocal Wiſhes loudly ſing;
That Great and Glorious, Great and Long!
Long, Long, and Happy, live the KING.

Conſtantinople, Decem 1. The Divan is divided into two Factions, one is for a Peace with Ruſſia, but the other, which is the moſt conſiderable, declares abſolutely for carrying on the War with the utmoſt Vigour. In the mean time the Grand Signor has order'd it to be ſignified to M. Dahlman, that his Highneſs would be well pleaſed if he went to the Army, and concert an Expedient with the Grand Vizir for beginning a Negotiation.

Conſtantinople Decem. 12. Baron Dahlman was lately exhorted by the Grand Signor to go to the Turkiſh Army; and it is ſaid, that the Embaſſadors of the Maritime Powers; would likewiſe be invited to go thither for the ſame Purpoſe. Nevertheleſs great Preparations for War are making all ove this vaſt Empire.

Naples, Decem 24. We are aſſur'd that the Duke of Berwick is to ſet out very ſoon, in Quality of Embaſſador from the King to his Imperial Majeſty; and is to be charg'd with a very important Commiſſion, the ſucceſs of which will ſtrictly unite the Courts of Vienna, Madrid and Naples.

Petersburgh, Decem. 15. The Miniſters of ſome Foreign Powers ſtill take a great deal of Pains to engage this Court to enter into a Negotiation with the Porte, under the Mediation of their Principals; to that End they have made ſeveral Propoſals, but the Empreſs inſiſts that the Grand Signor ſhall firſt ſend his Plenipotentiaries to the Frontiers, in caſe the Emperor is diſpoſed to ſend any from himſelf for beginning the Negotiations. Advices from Turkey ſay, that the Concluſion of the Peace there with Perſia has very much ſettled the Minds of the People; but that, nevertheleſs, there was ſtill a great Diſunion among the Miniſters of the Divan.

Petersburgh, Decem. 22. Adjutant General de Termes has receiv'd Orders to prepare Relaies and other conveniencies on the Road for the Veldt-Marſhal Count Munich, that he may come with the greater Expedition: Immediately after his Arrival a great Council of War will be held for ſettling the Operations of the approaching Campaign, which is now look'd upon as abſolutely unavoidable, eſpecially ſince the late Advices we have receiv'd from Conſtantinople, that the Ottoman Court appears no way diſpoſed to ſend Plenipotentiaries to the Frontiers for treating of a Peace, and that this Court continues to inſiſt on that Step in the Porte, before the Czarina will liſten to any Propoſals for an Accommodation whatever. Every thing here is ready for puſhing on the War with Vigour; The Regiments are all compleat, and her Imperial Majeſty has made 13 new Colonels. A Cabinet Courier ſet out laſt Week for Dantzick, to receive what remains due from that City to her Majeſty; and the 26th Inſtant arrived Baron de Keyzerlin's Secretary from Dreſden with ſome important Diſpatches.

Warſaw, Decem. 19. Letters from the Frontiers aſſure us that the Grand Vizir had ſent a new Summons to all the Baſhaws of the neighbouring Places, and Generals of his Army,

Army, to aſſiſt at a great Council which he was to hold at Sochocza, for conſidering of the Operations of the next Campaign.

Venice, Dec. 30. Col. Strutico is made a Brigadier of the Troops of the Republick, and we talk of a ſpeedy Promotion of Officers, which with the Warlike Preparations going on, gives us Reaſon to believe, every Day more and more, that the Government deſigns to act in concert with the Emperor in caſe his Majeſty comes to a Rupture with the Porte. But tho' the Republick is thus diſpoſed to unite her Forces with thoſe of his imperial Majeſty, to act conjointly againſt the Turks, the Senate appears reſolv'd not to begin any Enterprize that Way until a Treaty is concluded between them, as to the Conqueſts each Power is to keep.

Peterſbourg, Dec. 30. A few Days ſince a noble Venetian arriv'd here by the Way of Vienna, and has already been ſeveral Times in Conference with Count d'Oſterman and the Imperial Miniſters here; ſince which a Courier has been diſpatch'd for Venice, and another for Vienna. 'Tis aſſured this noble Venetian is ſent by the Senate of Venice to take Care of the Intereſts of that Republick, in Relation to the War againſt the Turks; for which End ſhe intends to be included in the Treaty now negotiating between this Court, Vienna and Poland, as a principal contracting Party: This Treaty will be call'd the Quadruple Alliance, in order to attack the Ottoman Empire on all Sides both by Sea and Land.

Vienna Jan. 9. The Court receiv'd an Expreſs from Count Caimo, the Imperial Miniſter at Florence, with Advice that the Spaniards had begun the Evacuation of Tuſcany the 31ſt of laſt Month. An Expreſs from Conſtantinople brings an Account that M. Dahlman, the Emperor's Miniſter, was ſet out from that City, but 'twas uncertain whether to go to the Turkiſh Army or to return hither. We have a Confirmation of the Defeat of Kouli-Kan's Troops in Perſia.

I R E L A N D.

Dublin, Dec. 25. Laſt Wedneſday Morning died Bruen Worthington, Eſq; Chief Clerk of the Hon. Houſe of Commons. He is ſuccceded in his Employment by Virtue of a Patent, by his Son Burdet Worthington, Eſq; A few Days before died the Lady of the ſaid Worthington.

By Letters from Antigua we hear, that by the Death of Rowland Aſh, of that Iſland, Eſq; an Eſtate of 2000 l. per Annum, devolves to John Bruſh, Eſq; Barrack Maſter of Drogheda, who lately married the ſaid Aſh's eldeſt Siſter.

Newry, Dec. 28. We have had this Morning an Account that a Veſſel laden with Wine and other Merchants Goods for Dublin, bound for Belfaſt, was ſtranded on the Iſle of Man, and the Cargo ſuppos'd to be loſt.

Roſs near Cork, Decem. 29. Laſt Week within two Miles of this Place, was loſt the Welcome Sloop of Cork, bound for Lisbon with Hides. All the Men ſwam ſafe to Shore, and in leſs than half an hour after the Hands left her ſhe was ſtav'd to ſmall Pieces on the long Strand near Sir John Freak's. They ſav'd the Maſts and Sails, and about 100 of the Hides which ſwam to the Shore.

Kilkenny, Dec. 29. This Day a very melancholy Accident happen'd near Thomas-Town in this Country, Miſs Hawley, Daughter of Major Hawley, and Miſs Beauford, returning from a Viſit they had been making to the Wife of Rober Myhil, Eſq; the Horſes which drew their Chaiſe taking Head, ran into the River Nore, wherein both the Ladies periſh'd.

Our Accounts from Caſtledermot confirm the above unpleaſant Relation, with this Addition, that the Body of one of the unfortunate young Creatures was found in a Ware near Thomas-Town, but the other was not diſcovered on Saturday.

Dublin, Jan. 4. Laſt Week died the Hon. Edmond Butler Eſq; Brother to the Right Hon. the Lord Viſcount Mountgarret.

We hear from Banagher in the King's County, that a Woman was brought to bed there laſt Week of two Children; ſhe is in the 59th Year of her Age, and has had not a Child for 20 Years before.

L O N D O N,

Jan. 8. We hear an Action is brought by the Lady Blackacre, (well known in Weſtminſter-hall) againſt an eminent Attorney near Lincoln's-Inn; the Plaintiff declares for an Aſſault, and beating out two of her Teeth, to her great Damage, &c. The Defendant pleads they were not her own natural Teeth, and fell out by Accident in her Paſſion. And

We hear the Attorney is bringing an Action againſt Lady Blackacre for the ſaid Teeth, and for keeping her Mouth in Teeth for ſome Years paſt.

There being mention in all the Foreign Gazettes of an Armament making at Breſt, to carry Troops to the Miſſiſippi to be employ'd againſt the Indian Nation call'd Chickeſaws, it may be of ſome Satisfaction to the Publick to know that theſe Chickeſaws are the only Nation of free Indians unſubdu'd by the French, between their Southern Settlements upon the Miſſiſippi and their Northern ones in Canada; that the French have twice attack'd them this laſt Spring, and have been as often repuls'd with conſiderable Loſs; and they being an independent Nation, and in Amity with the neighbouring Engliſh Colonies, it is not to be wonder'd that the French intend to attack them with a greater Force.

From South-Carolina we have the following Narrative on Oath of John Gardiner.

JUNE the 13th I arrived at Heehoe, where I was received by the Indians with a great deal of Civility. 15th I arrived at Checowee, where I left all my Horſes to the Number of 17 with two Colts, 16th lay in the Woods, 17th came to Joree; 18th in the Mountains, 19th where Mr. Bunning trades, and the 20th in the Mountains, the 21ſt at great Tellicoe ſtill receiving great Civilities from the Indians, the 22d at Tannaſa where the People received me with great Joy, and carried me immediately to the King's Houſe, where I was treated with ſeveral Diſhes of Victuals, from thence I was carried to the Prince's, where there was a Houſe provided for me and my People. In the Evening I went to the King again, where I ſaw a Frenchman the Cherokees had taken in War, being informed at the ſame time they had killed Four of the ſame ſort of People, and had taken ſeveral Baggs of Powder, Bullets, Guns and wearing Apparel, with ſeveral pocket Compaſſes. The Frenchman gave us an Account that, above two Months before he was taken, he had been to the Chickeſaws, in Company with One Hundred Men of his own Country People, and a great many of the Nantaurs, to War; that the Chickeſaws had killed Sixty Frenchmen and ſeveral of the Indians, he himſelf being ſhot thro' the Legg. From thence to the 26th nothing remarkable, only this, the Nantaurs ſhot at Our People as they were howing Corn, and killed a Woman, and one of ours being near his Gun, catched it up and ſhot after them as they run off and broke one of their Backs, who finding he was in no Condition to eſcape, drew his Knife and ſtabbed himſelf; upon which our People brought in his Head, Hands, and ſeveral pieces of his Fleſh, &c.

London, Jan. 25. We gave our Readers on Account ſome Months, ago, that the Republick of Genoa publiſh'd a Proclamation, granting a full and general Pardon to all Pickpockets, Thieves, Houſe-breakers, Highwaymen, Murderers, and Rogues of other Denominations, that would enter into her Service againſt the Corſicans; and the Regency of Genoa have lately publiſh'd another Proclamation, promiſing a conſiderable Reward to any one 'that ſhall take dead or 'alive, or kill Lord Theodore, the Advocate Acoſta, 'the Son of the latter, and Michael Foſſano de Dur-'azzo, who accompany'd him when he left that Iſ-'land.

March 7. Letters from Belgrade pretend, that Thamas Kouli Kan had found Means to pacify, the Malecontents, who had entred into a Confederacy to dethrone him, ſince which he had abſolutely refuſed to ratify the Peace concluded with the Porte.

In Spain they are employed in publick Proceſſions and Prayers, to obtain the Bleſſing of Rain, the Drought having continued ſo long, that the Government is very apprehenſive of the Scarcity of Proviſions, all proper Meaſures are taken to prevent an exhorbitant Price upon Corn, and ſome Bakers have already been committed to Priſon, for raiſing the Price of Bread too high.

Don Emanuel of Portugal continues ſtill at Bayonne, he is lodged in the Palace of the Queen Dowager of Spain, who treats him with the utmoſt Conſideration and Reſpect.

By Letters from Gibraltar we learn, that the Duke of Riperda

Riperda has fixed his Residence at Tetuan in Barbary, but lives in the most private manner imaginable, almost unknown and unregarded.

It is advised from the Tirol and the County of the Grisons, that the Snows on the Mountains being melted, it had caused such Torrents of Water, that the whole Country was in a manner overflowed, and in many Places the Houses had been carried away by the Violence of the Stream, and that Abundance of the Inhabitants and Cattle perished.

We learn from Doway, that the Orders of the French Court, with relation to the late Jansenist Canon, had been executed with the utmost Exactness. The Body was taken up again and buried in the Choir of the Church, with the accustomed Ceremony. The Canons were all forced to assist at the Procession in their Habits, as also the Commander of the City, and the Intendant of the Generality, the Garrison being all the Time under Arms to prevent any Disorder, and effectual Care is taken to hinder any such unwarrantable Proceedings for the future, to the great Mortification of the Jesuits.

On the 8th Inst. the Czarina's Birth Day was celebrated at Petersburg with the utmost Magnificence. She enters the 45th Year of her Age; at Noon there was a great Entertainment in the new Hall of the Palace, where was a Table representing a spread Eagle All the foreign Ministers and Persons of the first Quality were invited. The Empress was seated on her Throne under a rich Canopy with the two Princesses on each Side. During the Entertainment her Majesty presented Count D'Ostein, the Imperial Minister, with a large Glass to the Success of the Common Cause against the Turks, and to the good Issue of the Negotiations of Peace between the two Crowns and the Porte; at Night there was a fine Firework and a Ball. The Persian Ambassador has assured the Russian Court in the Name of Thamas Kouli Kan, that he will never ratify the Treaty his Ambassador concluded and signed at Constantinople.

They write from Bastia, that the Corsican Malecontents had held another General Assembly, in which several new Officers had been created; after which they entered unanimously into a solemn Oath to defend themselves to the last Extremity against the Republick of Genoa.

By Letters from Brussels we have an Account, that the Duke of Aremberg is made General of Arms, that is Captain General of the Forces in the Netherlands: he is the first since Charles V. to whom that Employment has been given, who was a Native of that Country, and whole great Birth, Qualities, and Services, render him worthy of it.

They write from Naples, that Transports are getting together in that Port, to take on board Torella's Regiment of Foot, the finest Regiment in the whole Kingdom; the King being resolved to make a Present of it to his Father instead of the Spanish Regiments the Catholick King sent that Prince.

The Duke of Popoli Cautelmi is set out for Madrid to throw himself at the King's Feet, and submit to whatever the King shall please to inflict upon him: his Crime is affronting the Spanish Guards, who would not suffer his Coach to enter into the Palace Yard, for which he has been long confin'd a Prisoner in the Castle of that City.

'Tis said, That there has not a Lord-Chancellor died in his Office, since Sir Thomas Audley, who lies buried at Saffron-Walden Church in Essex, with the following Inscription on his Tomb

Death's inevitable Dart,
Has now of Life bereaved the Heart,
Of Sir Thomas Audley, of the Garter Knight,
And Chancellor of England, to that Potent Prince of Might,
King Henry the VIIIth, worthy of high Renown,
And made by him Lord of this Town.

The Imperial Cavalry, who are enter'd into Tuscany, arrived some Days ago at Empoli; they are divided into two Bodies, one of which took the Rout of Sienno, the other advanced towards Pisa. These Troops observe the most exact Discipline wherever they pass, General Wachtendonch taking the utmost Care that they pay punctually for what they have, and give no Manner of Offence to the Inhabitants, so that the Country is in a perfect State of Tranquility and Peace. The Duke of Lorrain has written a Letter to the great Duke in which he assures him, that as soon as his Affairs will permit, he will come and pay his Respects to him in Person.

Letters from Marseilles observe, that the Cold is so excessive thereabouts, that the like was hardly ever known in the Memory of Man; publick Prayers and Processions are continually making for temperate Weather.
